MISERICORDIA UNIVERSITY

"OUT OF THE DEPTHS I CRY TO THEE"

A SYMPOSIUM ON RELIGION, LITERATURE, AND THE MODERN UNIVERSITY

Saturday, October 19, 2019
10:00 am - 4:45 pm

Mary Kintz Bevevino Library
Catherine Evans McGowan Room, Misericordia University

ROUNDTABLE ON EDUCATION IN A POST-CHRISTIAN ERA

with special guests

Sister Mary Donald Corcoran, OSB Cam. (Transfiguration Monastery)
Father Alex Roche (Pastor, Our Lady of Mount Carmel and Chaplain, Misericordia University)
Dr. Annie Lefler (Lower-school Coordinator, Maria Kaupas Academy)
Dr. George Shea (Assistant Professor, Misericordia University)
Jacob Schweiger (PT Grad School, Misericordia University) and Misericordia student Respondents

PLENARY SPEAKERS

Dr. Nathan S. Lefler
Professor of Theology, University of Scranton
Fiction as a Vehicle of Truth and Grace: Soundings in Evelyn Waugh, Flannery O'Connor, J. R. R. Tolkien, and René Girard

Dr. Larry Chapp
Retired Professor of Theology, DeSales University
Theologican Imagination as Resistance to the Totalitatian Spirit of Post-Modernity

KEYNOTE

Dr. James Matthew Wilson
Associate Professor of Religion and Literature, Villanova University
Sneering at Beauty: Religion, Literature, and the Primacy of Wonder

RSVP by October 11 to Rita Molino, rmolino@misericordia.edu or by calling 570-674-8184

Sponsored by the Soyka Fund for the Humanities

APPROVED FOR POSTING
08/28/19
OFFICE OF STUDENT ENGAGEMENT